White Water Rafting in Siskiyou County

SISKIYOU FAMILY YMCA

KLAMATH RIVER RAFTING

CLASS II -III / 1-3 DAY TRIPS/ 6-30 PEOPLE

Still one of the best kept secrets in the Northwest, the wild and scenic Klamath River provides a true wilderness experience, where bears, river otter, bald eagles, osprey and deer abound in their natural habitat.

Trips include mini excursions up remote stream canyons to waterfalls and swimming holes.

The moderate Class II Rapids allow for plenty of excitement while still being appropriate for all ages and abilities.

DID YOU KNOW...

... SISKIYOU COUNTY BOASTS SOME OF THE BEST WHITEWATER RAFTING IN THE WORLD?

It's true! The Siskiyou Family YMCA offers affordable white water rafting trips to Siskiyou County residents during the summer months! All rafting trips will be made on various stretches of the wild and scenic Klamath River. Trips feature hikes, wildlife talks, team building exercises and lots of whitewater action!

SLEEP UNDER THE STARS

ADVENTURE. FUN. LAUGHTER.
PARADISE!

Paradise Point is the destination for overnight trips, a private campground that offers beautiful sites on the banks of the Klamath River. Included is a sand volleyball court near the beach, a horseshoe pit, and plenty of area to explore. Paradise Point has running water, restrooms, and an outdoor shower.
