“I came to the YMCA two years ago, in need of professional help. I was partnered with Jake and weekly my balance, strength and endurance grew. I moved beyond rehabilitating my knee and foot and began building muscle and endurance; Jake was confident in my ability to reclaim the adventures I was missing and needed in my retirement. Last year, I was elated to downhill ski, whitewater kayak and take extended hikes. Victory!”

Meet our Personal Trainers

Heather Halverson

Heather Halverson is a NASA-Certified Personal Trainer whose journey in health and wellness began with her own experience in weight loss, where she discovered the powerful role of exercise in enhancing mental well-being. She wants to share this knowledge with others and is dedicated to helping individuals achieve their healthiest and most confident selves. Heather is also pursuing a nutrition certification to enhance her expertise.

Phoenix Jensen

Phoenix is an ACE Certified Personal Trainer who is deeply passionate about fitness as it completely changed his life. He has realized not only the physical benefits you can gain from exercise, but the mental benefits you gain as well. With Phoenix being so heavily invested into fitness, he wants to share his love for it with others by helping them grow into the best version of themselves through exercise.

Jake Williams

Jake started his journey into health and wellness at a young age, being an athlete playing multiple sports and then discovering weight training in his early teens. Becoming a Certified Personal Trainer at the age of 18, Jake has 16 years of experience in the field. Working with a wide variety of clientele, from first-time gym goers to advanced athletes, and physical rehabilitation needs to general weight management.

Chai Perlman

Chai is a certified personal trainer through the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) where he is also enrolled in the Nutrition Coach Program. He loves a physical challenge and is a passionate athlete, which led him to become a professional disc golf player. He also enjoys backpacking and camping with his equally adventurous Labradoodle, Harper.
